

Get paid to learn solar

We're hiring!

is installing a solar project at

We have open positions for

Apply for these positions

Visit CalSOMAH.org/jobs to learn more, or contact

There are limited positions available for this project.

Questions about working with SOMAH?

☎ SOMAH Workforce Department 1-510-913-9402

SOMAH is administered by the SOMAH Program Administration Team under the auspices of the California Public Utilities Commission. © 2018 California Public Utilities Commission. All rights reserved.

Are you eligible?

To be a SOMAH job trainee, you must meet one of these criteria:

- ✓ Live in a property that is participating in SOMAH
- ✓ OR, be currently enrolled in an eligible job training program
- ✓ OR, have graduated from an eligible job training program within 12 months of the start date of your first SOMAH job training opportunity

ABOUT SOMAH

The Solar on Multifamily Affordable Housing (SOMAH) program provides financial incentives for installing photovoltaic (PV) energy systems on multifamily affordable housing. Participating contractors are required to hire paid job trainees to work on SOMAH projects. Work opportunities start at 40 hours per project.

