

Job training opportunities

The building you live in is having a solar PV system installed through the SOMAH program. As a resident of this building, you're eligible for paid on-the-job solar training opportunities.

Benefits

- Get paid to gain experience in key solar industry skills
- Access the SOMAH job board, where you can post your resume and apply for jobs
- Gain access to a directory of job training organizations offering solar-related training
- Benefit from other resources to support your job search and professional development

Get started

It's easy to get started. Just follow these steps:

1. Contact your SOMAH approved contractor installing solar on your building, (see below).
2. Sign up for access to the job training portal at calsomah.org.

Why work in the solar industry?

- The solar industry employs over 80,000 people in the state of California.
- Earn a living while benefiting people and the environment.
- Solar jobs cannot be sent overseas.

What to expect

- If you are selected for the job, you will work directly with your hiring contractor to schedule workdays.
- The number of hours you will work will depend on the size of the solar PV system for the project, ranging from 40–80 hours or more.
- All SOMAH job trainees will be paid at a rate consistent with the contractor's entry-level or temporary worker wage, or 1.4x the minimum wage of the city in which the SOMAH project is located – whichever is higher.
- You will receive payment within 30 days of doing the work.
